

FRIENDS OF WALDPORT
PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

1st Quarter Edition 2021

Dear Friends of the Waldport Public Library Members,

This last year is behind us and we are excited to share our ideas and plans for the upcoming months. The Friends, with your support, have special events in mind and are supporting some great programs for the community.

Read on for a brief summary of Friends happenings!!

First, on the calendar this last quarter, the Friends sponsored prizes for the Young Writers' Competition 2021. The theme for this competition was Reading Colors Your World. The competition was during the month of March 2021, for 5th grade-high school students.

Second, in 2020 the Friends of the WPL sponsored a library community project, The Waldport Library Dragon Coloring Book. This was a community library project where local artists, of all ages, draw a dragon art piece on an 8" x 11" sheet of paper and submit it to the Waldport Library. The dragon drawings were professionally published to create the Waldport

Public Library Imagine Your Dragon 2020 Coloring Book. Purchase the coloring book for $10.00 at the Waldport Library.

Enjoy the following reviews.

The following book reviews were written by Barbara Fischer. We appreciate her submissions and hope you enjoy her reviews and remember them when choosing your next books.

Greenlights, Matthew McConaughey’s recent book release is a memoir/autobiography of his life. Not only does McConaughey bring his life story full-circle, he brings to light how everyone can catch greenlights in their life. This is a delightful book that grabs the reader and shakes their internal clock, that red and yellow lights we all experience in life can turn to greenlights.

Alexander McCall Smith’s newest book release Tiny Tales: Stories of Romance, Ambition, Kindness, and Happiness engages the reader in delightful tales of romance, ambition, kindness, and happiness in thirty short stories, in one book cover, accompanied by thirty quick-witted illustrative cartoons designed by Iain McIntosh, McCall Smith’s longtime creative artist collaborator. Get ready for some laughing!

Let us know if you would like to review a book or movie for the next Friends of the Waldport Public Library Newsletter.

Sincerely,

The Friends of the Waldport Public Library
