Enjoy the following reviews.

The following book reviews were written by the New York Times Bestseller editor. We appreciate the reviews and remember them when choosing your next books.

The Bohemians by Jasmin Darznik

A dazzling novel of one of America’s most celebrated photographers, Dorothea Lange, exploring the wild years in San Francisco that awakened her career-defining grit, compassion, and daring.

Mexican Gothic by Silvia Moreno-Garcia

Moreno-Garcia’s newest novel Mexican Gothic draws inspiration from gothic classics like Rebecca and Jane Eyre – there is a spunky female protagonist and an ancient house filled with disturbing secrets – its archly intelligent tone and writing make Mexican Gothic an original escape to an eerie world.
