"I am an award-winning book author, magazine writer, editor, writing teacher and speaker. My wide-ranging passions include astronomy, volcanology, art, music, history, nature, waves, jokes, crayons, and mud — anything that catches my fancy. I am inspired by stories of exploration and discovery, stories that have been overlooked by history, and stories that grapple with persistent questions. Whether writing fiction or nonfiction for children or adults or teaching workshops, I hope my work opens doors, opens minds, opens possibilities."

COSPLAY WORKSHOP

Grayson Schlosser—Oregon Music Teacher, Artist, Costume Designer . . . and Batman!

COSTUME & MASK WORKSHOP

Seashore Family Literacy Center

2:00-3:00 P.M.

Recommended for Kids-Adults

Pre-registration Required.

Grayson Schlosser is a local hero to youth and adults. As a young teen, he volunteered at the Waldport Public Library, and went on to work with Seashore Family Literacy, YWAM, Americorps, and, currently, the Lincoln County School District. He is an accomplished musician, artist, and a construction partner at Spruceridge Home & Designs. Later this year, he plans to officially open MadMaster Piano Studio.

In his spare time, Grayson enjoys updating his Bat Truck and creating Batman costumes. He is looking forward to sharing his knowledge of costume design; and helping festival participants create masks during his workshop.
